WORKBOOK

DAY ONE

BEING FORGIVEN

1. What does Colossians 1:14 assure us?

2. How many sins did Jesus forgive in John 1:29?

3. Do you feel there is a sin that is too awful to be forgiven? If you answer yes, write what sin you think that is.

4. Is there any sin that you might have committed that you feel God can't forgive? If yes, what is it?

5. Right now, on a separate piece of paper, list every sin you can think of that you have ever committed. Take your time, and be careful to try to remember everything. Don't continue to the next question until you are certain that your list is complete.

6. On the list that you just made, write across it in large letters, "It is finished." Also in large letters, now write across it, "I am forever forgiven." After you have done this, destroy the list. The next time Satan (or anyone else) tries to throw your past sins in your face again, don't try to argue with them. Just answer simply, "It is finished."

7. What does God say in Hebrews 10:17?

When God says that He will remember our sins and transgressions no more, that does not mean that He forgets them, per se, but that He will never bring them up to us again.

8. What does 1 John 2:1 call Jesus?

9. What does 1 John 1:9 promise us?

10. The word confess does not mean “to ask for,” but rather “to acknowledge what you have.” In other words, you don’t have to ask for that which you already have, but acknowledge that you have it. In the space below, write out a prayer “confessing” where you stand with God right now.

11. Rather than restoring your innocence, God chose to replace it with purity. In the space below, write what you think is the difference between innocence and purity.

12. Where does 1 Corinthians 1:30 say that you are right now? What does that mean?
